For Immediate Release

Esplanade at Chestnut Ridge honored its 10th year of service to seniors at their annual holiday party for residents and their families on Thursday, December 15th, featuring live music and delicious food. The celebration continued on December 21st, when over one hundred employees from the Promenade Senior Living Family of assisted living communities in Rockland and Orange counties, including Esplanade at Chestnut Ridge, in Chestnut Ridge, NY, Promenade at Tuxedo Place in Tuxedo, NY and Promenade at Blue Hill in Pearl River, NY celebrated together at the nearby Woodcliff Lake Hilton in Bergen County, NJ.

The celebration recognized five employees who have served the Esplanade for more than 10 years: Fern Labarre, Medication Technician; Rose Buskin, Activities Leader; Amonce Pierre, Maintenance Worker; Lenés Hilaire, Utility Worker; and Edmonde Zamor, Personal Care Aide.

In addition to honoring these dedicated individuals, Regional Manager, Jodi Gittelman announced a newly established Promenade Senior Living Award: The Marilyn Rosenzweig Award of Excellence, named in memory of longtime employee Marilyn Rosenzweig. "Marilyn's compassion, dedication and excellence exemplify the qualities Promenade Senior Living communities highly value, and this award will be given each year to someone who demonstrates these traits," said Gittelman. A certificate establishing this award was presented to Robert Rosenzweig, Marilyn's husband and Promenade at Blue Hill employee. "Marilyn was such a wonderful, kind woman who provided excellent care to our residents. She was a great role model for all our employees. This is a lovely way to honor her and everything she stood for."
