THE PROMENADE AT TUXEDO PLACE ANNOUNCES EXPANDED SERVICES FOR ITS RESIDENTS

Tuxedo, NY (August 24, 2010) – The Promenade at Tuxedo Place announced today that they have named St. Francis Home Care Services, Inc. as a new provider for on-site licensed home care services to the residents of its community.

“St. Francis Home Care has an excellent reputation for quality services and has been providing home care services since 1986. Our assistive living community will be staffed with a full-time Licensed Practical Nurse supervising the services and Personal Care Aides who are in the building and providing care to those who need it 24/7” said Jodi Gittelman, Executive Director.

Mindy Quinn, Director of Community Relations says “This is one of many changes that have taken place since we acquired Tuxedo Place in January. Residents can now receive on-site physical and occupational therapy through Fox Rehabilitation and we have a licensed social worker to work with residents one-on-one or as a group”.

The Promenade at Tuxedo Place is home to many natives of Orange, Rockland, Bergen and Sullivan counties. With fifty-six assistive living studio apartments and forty-four senior rental apartments, the continued expansion of services available on the premises are important additions to those who live there and those looking to make a move.
