RSVP

On Tuesday, October 9th, the RSVP will hold its 45th Annual Volunteer Recognition event at the Crowne Plaza in Suffern. All RSVP volunteers, Worksite Supervisors and Supporters of the RSVP program are invited to this festive and enjoyable celebration of community service.

The mission of the Rockland County Retired & Senior Volunteer Program (RSVP) is to help address community needs by recruiting volunteers 55 or older to lend their time and expertise in community service at agencies and senior residences throughout the county.

Promenade at Chestnut Ridge is pleased to support this RSVP event with a full page ad in their Recognition Journal. We are grateful to all the wonderful RSVP volunteers who continue to visit our community and bring so much joy to our residents.

Senator Carlucci's Senior Fair

Last month, Senator David Carlucci held his 7th Annual Senior Fair at Rockland Community College. We were proud to be supporters, as we have been every year.

Promenade at Chestnut Ridge's Director of Community Relations, Debbie Corwin, was available to answer questions and provide literature on all of the Promenade Senior Living communities.

Sincerely

We'd like to share one of the lovely thank-you letters we received from the daughter of one of our residents after our Grandparents Day Champagne Brunch:

Hi, Gail,

Just a short note to let you know how much we enjoyed the "Brunch" this past weekend. I know how committed you & your caring team are to all the residents.

As usual, I think I can actually say that Nilly outdid herself with the theme & presentation. Everything was thoughtfully planned out & looked amazing. The music was terrific, the food delicious & the care welcoming!

Your staff are all excellent caregivers & as a team, they work great together. All a reflection on you!

Thanks again for this fun Sunday spent with my mom.
