Special Thanks to Amy Stern,
Chief Executive Officer at United Hospice of Rockland

Promenade Senior Living is proud to support all the wonderful services United Hospice of Rockland provides for so many people in the county, including some Promenade residents.

Promenade at Chestnut Ridge is incredibly fortunate to have had a resident who happened to be the father of UHR’s CEO, Amy Stern, and so in addition to knowing Amy as the CEO of UHR and having a nice, professional relationship, we also got to know Amy as a warm, loving daughter. She quickly became part of our Promenade at Chestnut Ridge family.

You may have seen her father, Marty, on You Tube. He was featured in the video “George Ezra vs. Seniors,” which has well over 400,000 views.

Last month, UHR honored Amy for all the wonderful things she’s done for UHR at their Annual Gala. We were delighted to be among the organizations supporting the efforts of UHR and honoring Amy for her service.

Amy has been UHR’s Executive Director since 1989 and was promoted to Chief Executive Officer in 2016 to more accurately reflect her expanding role and dedication to UHR. Prior to becoming Director, Amy was the first social worker for UHR’s community hospice program. Before UHR, Amy’s work included the establishment of a palliative care home care program at Good Samaritan Hospital and social work in acute care hospitals and foster care.

Amy is a member of the board of directors of the Hospice and Palliative Care Association of New York State (HPCANYS). She presently serves as Chair of the NYS Legislative/ Regulatory Public Policy Committee. She is currently a member of the Ethics Committee of Good Samaritan Hospital, the Rockland Business Exchange, the New City Rotary and is a founding member of the Institute for Non-Profits. In 2007, Amy was presented with the Carol Selinske Founder’s Award by HPCANYS for her outstanding efforts on behalf of hospice and palliative care and the needs of the terminally ill in New York. She received an Honorary Doctor of Science degree from Dominican College in 2009. Most recently, she was awarded the Sr. Peggy Scarano Award in recognition of being selected the Non-Profit Executive of the Year.

Giving Thanks

We wanted to share this special thank you note from the family of our beloved resident, Fred B., who passed away last month. May his memory forever be a blessing.

Hi Gail,

Thank you so much for your phone message. Your kind words yesterday meant a lot to my husband.

Dad passed away yesterday. We are saddened by our loss and will miss him every day, but we are at peace knowing that he is at rest.

We want to thank you and everyone at The Promenade for your help and guidance during dad’s stay. We enjoyed the time we spent with our father at The Promenade and the love that every staff member had for the residents.

*Best always,
Pia*
