Look how much fun we had at our annual Friends and Family Holiday Party! Mary Ann and Stuart aren't really Grinches! Karen made them do it!

The food service team prepared and served a wonderful buffet dinner for our residents and guests.

The Staff of the Promenade at Middletown Wishes You a Happy and Healthy New Year!

Party Time!

Toni B. and Shirley Z. join family and friends at our bash.

Meanwhile, Santa listens intently to Ellie C.'s Christmas wish list.

Ho Ho Ho! Happy Holidays!

Kris Kringle made the rounds that night!

Employee of the Month

Meet Marita Buffone

Concierge Marita Buffone has worked with us at the Promenade for a little over two years. She previously worked with seniors for over 10 years in New England and Ohio in independent living communities.

Married for almost 20 years (in August 2019) to her husband Chris, she spoils her granddaughter Kylie and dotes on her family.

A freelance writer and editor, the Haverstraw native also loves gardening, cooking, loom knitting and the Yankees! She loves her residents and her Promenade family!

Door Decorating Contest Winners

Every year, the Blampied family sponsors a holiday door decorating contest to see who can dress up their entrance in the most festive manner!

The Blampieds sponsor the contest to honor their family member Dorothy Blampied, who was a resident many years ago.

We had a tie for our 1st Place winners: Dorothy Wh., and Theresa S./Clara C. shared the $40 prize.

Much thanks to all our participants and especially the Blampied family!

Holiday Bash!

We all partied!

Happy New Year 2019
